

OAMME & OABE

Winter Institute Jan 13 & 14, 2017

Building Community Through Language and Culture

Oregon AMME is teaming up with the Oregon Association for Bilingual Education for their Winter Institute in January 2017!

This institute is designed for teachers and administrators engaged in the work of raising achievement for all students through the application of bilingual and culturally responsive pedagogy. A parent strand will be offered on Saturday only, January 14th (9:00 - 3:30 pm).

- ▶ Day 1 keynoter, Dr. Bill Rhoades, will focus on educational leadership in a multilingual society.
- ▶ Day 2 keynoter, Karen Beeman (above), will focus on teaching and learning in a culturally and linguistically responsive classroom that fosters rich literacy experiences for students.

When: January 13 & 14, 2017

Where: Lewis & Clark College
Portland, Oregon

Time: 9am - 3:30pm

About: AMME strives to cultivate a multilingual multicultural society by supporting and promoting policy, programs, pedagogy, research, and professional development that value native languages, lead to English and academic proficiency, and prepare our nation's students for the global economy.

Visit us at: oregonamme.org or oabe.org